

CONNECT

Here's a thread

The power to CONNECT

The power to change

CONNECT two dots and change the whole plot

CONNECT one day and change a long week

CONNECT to one thought and change what you speak

CONNECTING hearts we change their flow, the plan, the path, the course, route, and row

CONNECT with uncertainty and change what we know - plots and seeds that we grow

CONNECT and change what you want

What do you want?

Don't like the hue, change the color

Scared of the storms, change their thunder

Don't share the dream, dream another

CONNECT and change

A place, a dance, the towns, the now, your vow, the news, the fight, the night, the light

Anything you like

CONNECT, CONNECT, CONNECT . . .

CONNECT and change

CONNECTING changes anything
